A CARDINAL SIN.
CHAPTER II.
FROM TWO POINTS OF VIEW.

The six miles of road between Brockton and the city of Boston, was a terrible one to the traveler. As you drive over it, you feel as if you were walking on a sea of fire. The road is so bad, that it is almost impossible to travel on it. The only way to get from Brockton to the city is to take a stage, and even then, the ride is a terrible one. The stage is so full of passengers, that it is almost impossible to get any rest. The driver is so careless, that he will take any chance to get to the city. The only way to get from Brockton to the city is to take a stage, and even then, the ride is a terrible one.
